

The A. F. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a brief summary of important matters affecting labor, including the activities of the legislative, judicial and executive branches of the federal government, and the state of the labor movement.

WAR LABOR BOARD'S RULES OF PROCEDURE

Washington, May 25.—The national war labor board has perfected rules for taking up industrial disputes. The board, created by the War Relocation Act, is the first of its kind in the history of the United States. It is composed of representatives of employers and employees, and is empowered to hear and decide upon disputes between them. The board's rules of procedure are designed to ensure that the process is fair and efficient. They provide for the selection of a hearing panel, the presentation of evidence, and the rendering of a decision. The board's decisions are final and binding upon the parties.

The board's rules of procedure are designed to ensure that the process is fair and efficient. They provide for the selection of a hearing panel, the presentation of evidence, and the rendering of a decision. The board's decisions are final and binding upon the parties. The board's rules of procedure are designed to ensure that the process is fair and efficient. They provide for the selection of a hearing panel, the presentation of evidence, and the rendering of a decision. The board's decisions are final and binding upon the parties.

DENY FICKERT'S CLAIM

San Francisco, May 25.—District Attorney Fickert has been placed in a difficult position by the publication of a letter to Gov. Stephens by Attorney C. E. Arnold of this city. Fickert's claim is that he is the author of the letter. However, the letter itself states that it was written by "a person who is not named." Fickert's claim is therefore denied.

HOW TO HOLD WORKERS

Knoxville, Tenn., May 25.—Editor Keith of the Knoxville Plain Dealer has been asked to publish a notice to the effect that the Knoxville Plain Dealer is not responsible for the actions of its employees. The notice is being published in the paper's issue of May 26.

LUDLOW VICTIMS FAVORED

Indianapolis, May 25.—A majority of the board of directors of the Ludlow Coal and Coke Co. has been elected. The board is composed of representatives of the company and the community. The board's duties are to oversee the company's operations and to ensure that the community's interests are protected.

R. R. LABOR LAW UPHOLD

Washington, May 25.—Federal court decrees holding that railroad labor laws are unconstitutional have been reversed. The Supreme Court has ruled that the laws are constitutional. This decision is a victory for the labor movement.

FAYORS COOR INSURANCE

Hinsdale, N. D., May 25.—State insurance commissioners have approved a bill to create a bureau of farm risk insurance. The bureau will be responsible for insuring farmers against losses due to fire, flood, and other disasters.

INFANT MORTALITY HIGH

Detroit, Mich., May 25.—At a meeting of the Michigan Child Welfare Council, it was reported that the infant mortality rate in the state is still high. The council is working to reduce the rate by improving sanitation and providing better medical care for infants.

TERRESTRIAL REINSTATE

Terre Haute, Ind., May 25.—Employees of the Terre Haute company have been reinstated after being expelled for participating in a strike. The company has agreed to pay back wages to the employees.

HORSEHOES TO MEET

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 25.—The convention of the International Union of Horsemen is being held in Pittsburgh. The union is a national organization of horsemen, and its purpose is to promote the interests of horsemen and to improve the conditions of horse racing.

LIVING WAGE DEFENDED

New York, May 25.—A writer in the New York World quotes from a labor board report that a sufficient income to keep itself in good health is not the basis for determining a living wage. The writer argues that a living wage should be based on the cost of living, not on the cost of health.

CARPENTERS MAKE GAINS

Indianapolis, May 25.—General Carpenters' District of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America has secured a wage increase for its members. The increase is 10 percent over the previous rate.

OBJECT TO R. R. WAGE AWARD

St. Louis, Mo., May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for a wage award to railroad workers. However, the bill has been objected to by many in the labor movement, who feel that the award is insufficient.

COMPENSATION RULING

Denver, Colo., May 25.—The state supreme court has ruled that a compensation award to a worker is valid. The award was made by a labor board, and the court has upheld its decision.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

STEEL WORKERS PROSPER

Joliet, Ill., May 25.—At the convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, it was reported that the steel industry is prospering. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

U. S. POWERS ENLARGED BY NEW SEDITION LAW

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WESTERN WORKERS WANT TO DEVELOP LAND

Bakersfield, Cal., May 25.—Officers of the California oil well workers' union have written a letter to the state government asking for the development of oil lands. The workers want to be able to work on the lands and to share in the profits.

SHIP YARD WORKERS CAN NOT BE PLAGUED

Galesburg, Ill., May 25.—The state industrial commission reports that shipyard workers are being plagued by a shortage of work. The commission is working to find a way to increase the demand for shipyard workers.

WOMEN OPERATE CARS AND MAINTAIN 'HOME'

Madison, Wis., May 25.—The state industrial commission reports that women are operating cars and maintaining homes. The commission is working to improve the conditions of women workers.

FOOD PACKERS PROFIT

San Francisco, May 25.—The Tomlinson Food Packers Association reports that food packers are making a profit. The association is pleased with the current state of the industry.

OPPOSE BUSINESS BRIBERY

Washington, May 25.—The federal government is opposing business bribery. The government is working to prevent businesses from bribing officials to get contracts.

DISRUPT LABOR MARKET

Washington, May 25.—Officers of the department of labor claim that the labor market is being disrupted. The department is working to restore the labor market to normal.

PIECE WORK LOWERS RATE

New York, May 25.—The convention of the national association of piece workers has reported that piece workers are getting a lower rate. The association is working to increase the rate.

48 HOURS IN ENGLAND

Manchester, England, May 25.—Despite England's war trouble, the 48-hour week is being maintained. The government is working to ensure that workers are not overworked.

WHY LABOR IS 'SCARC'

Washington, May 25.—One reason for the scarcity of labor is the war. The war has caused a shortage of workers in many industries.

MOONEY LOSSES APPEAL

San Francisco, May 25.—Joe P. Mooney has lost his fight to get the federal government to pay him back wages. The government has refused to pay him.

TO FORM STATE BODY

Washington, May 25.—A bill to create a state body to oversee the labor market has been introduced. The body would be responsible for ensuring that the labor market is fair and efficient.

MINERS MAKE FINE MOVE

Indianapolis, May 25.—Officers of the United Mine Workers' union have made a fine move. They have secured a wage increase for their members.

STOVE MOUNTAINS GAIN

Louisville, Ky., May 25.—Stove mounters have secured a wage increase. The increase is 10 percent over the previous rate.

LABOR LOAN A SUCCESS

Washington, May 25.—The third labor loan has been a success. It has provided the workers with the money they need to improve their conditions.

INDEMNITY SUIT

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 25.—A woman was injured at the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Association. She has filed a suit for indemnity.

PAINTERS RISE WAGES

Rochester, N. Y., May 25.—Painters have secured a wage increase. The increase is 10 percent over the previous rate.

STREET CAR MEN GAIN

Topeka, Kan., May 25.—The Topeka Rapid Transit Company has reached an agreement with the street car men. The men have secured a wage increase.

PROBE CONDUCTOR

Washington, May 25.—District Attorney Lawrence of Kings county has begun a probe into the conduct of a railroad conductor. The probe is to determine if the conductor has committed any crimes.

LABOR EDITORS TO MEET

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—A meeting of labor editors is being held in Springfield. The editors are discussing the current state of the labor movement.

RAISE WAGES $104,000

Baltimore, Md., May 25.—The Great Baltimore Convention of the Great Baltimore Convention has reported that wages have been raised by $104,000.

FILM CENSOR BOARD UPHOLD

New York, May 25.—The state film censorship board has upheld a decision. The decision is that a certain film is obscene and should be banned.

A. B. LOWE PASSES ON

Detroit, Mich., May 25.—A. B. Lowe, a prominent labor leader, has passed away. He was 70 years old.

TO FORM STATE BODY

Washington, May 25.—A bill to create a state body to oversee the labor market has been introduced. The body would be responsible for ensuring that the labor market is fair and efficient.

TO FORM STATE BODY

Washington, May 25.—A bill to create a state body to oversee the labor market has been introduced. The body would be responsible for ensuring that the labor market is fair and efficient.

LIBELS AGAINST LABOR INJURE WESTERN CITY

Tacoma, Wash., May 25.—Many business men in this city, and every other city, are being injured by the libels against labor. The libels are causing a loss of business for the labor movement.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.

WHOLE NO. 373

Washington, May 25.—President Wilson has signed the bill which provides for the enlargement of the powers of the United States government in the event of a rebellion. The bill gives the government the authority to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to seize property belonging to rebels.